

Discovering Your Ancestors – Series II with Janet O’Conor Camarata

Series II: Description: Learn more about your genealogy and your ancestors by using a variety of lesser-known sources, including county and family histories; maps, atlases, and gazetteers; land records; courthouses, including wills and probate; immigration, naturalization and passenger lists and military records. Gain skills in the research process; on-site research planning; using timelines and chronologies; organizing paper, books and digital files and the Genealogical Proof Standard.

Jun 5 - Research Process; County Histories & Family Histories; Is Your Finding a Facts, Clues and Leads

Jun 26 - On-site Research Planning; Maps, Atlases & Gazetteers

Jul 17 - Timelines & Chronologies; Land Records

Jul 24 - Organizing Paper, Books & Digital Files; Courthouse Research, including Wills & Probate

Aug 7 - Genealogical Proof Standard; Military Records

Aug 28 - Immigration & Naturalization Records; Students share research